

Andrina Bollinger & Alessandra Bossa

Swiss singer and multi-instrumentalist Andrina Bollinger and Italian electronic artist and pianist Alessandra Bossa will present a project that moves between classic vocal-piano song arrangements, evocative post-ambient electronics, body-performance and improvised music. The two artists began their collaboration during a residency held in the beautiful and inspiring bricks of Venice in Italy for the New Echo Festival.

Both composers and producers, they're interested in the mash-up of jazz, avant-garde, pop, electronica, and performative elements. All to create a unique amalgam of sound and words.
